

Fall In Love With Your Wardrobe Again

In our last tip we talked about how people wear 20% of their clothes, 80% of the time. You've got an investment in your closet, whether you are aware of it or not. Wearing only 20% just isn't a wise use of that investment. Much of the time, that 80% isn't worn because of fit, but sometimes it is just because you've gotten into a rut. You wear the same thing over and over because it's easy, familiar and you've not taken the time to put new combinations together. Life is hectic and you are rushed in the morning. Trying to put new outfits together before work just isn't going to cut it so you wear the same thing over and over and that 80% gets forgotten about.

A Moment's Notice is a product that can take you out of that rut and put you in touch with the clothes you forgot you had! Snapping shots of your clothes and downloading them into your virtual closet is as easy as posting a photo on facebook. Simply download your photos and fill in as much information as you want about each clothing or jewelry item. A Moment's Notice will track how much of an investment you have in your closet, allow you to sort by designer, color, size or season and help you put new outfits together. Peek into your closet from anywhere you have access to the internet in as little as a few seconds! It's as fun as shopping online and a whole lot less expensive. Why not make the most of an investment you've already made?
