

Stepping Up

I find it most useful in the kitchen but it can be used anywhere. Why do I love it so much? Well, it is just so tiny! When folded, it fits in the smallest of spaces like the one inch space between fridge and cabinets. It is also super light. This stool has been a life saver for me since I am vertically challenged. I'm only 5'1" if you were wondering. Sometimes you just need a couple of extra inches to reach that top shelf. Hope this stool makes things easier to reach on your end too. Here's to stepping up!
